SOCIAL and PERSONAL

THE wedding of Miss Janie Bosh-er, daughter of Mr. T. Kearny Verter, of Luray, was celebrated at the Raleigh Hotel, in Washington, on Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock, the Rev. John Y. Downman, of All Saints' Episcopal Church, of Richmond, officiating.

The ceremony was witnessed by the mother of the bride, Mrs. Thaddeus Bowen, of this city, and by her cousin, Mrs. John Noel, of Baltimore, who was matron of honor. Mr. Edward Verter, the groom's brother, was his best man.

The bride wore an empire gown of white crepe de chine, a tulle veil, and carried Bride roses. The matron of honor was attired in pale blue crepe, and had a bouquet of La France roses. Dr. J. Fulmer Bright, an intimate friend of the bride and her family, gave her away.

The wedding was followed by a breakfast, served to the bridal party in a private apartment at the Raleigh Hotel, and by the departure of the bride and groom for their honeymoon.

Stables—Kersey. Mrs. P. W. Kersey, of Ashland, announces the engagement of her daughter, Florence Elsie, to Mr. Linton Dunn Stables, of Norfolk. The marriage is to take place at the home of the bride on July 23d, at 4 o'clock.

Brittle—Johnson. Miss Belle Johnson and Mr. Walter L. Brittle, Jr., were quietly married on Wednesday at the parsonage of Third Presbyterian Church, the Rev. R. B. Eggleston officiating.

The bride wore a traveling costume of gray and carried Bride roses. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Johnson, of Oakwood Avenue. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brittle, and is associated with his father in the management of an East End dairy farm. The couple are now taking an extended Northern tour.

Gresham—Tignor. The wedding of Miss Maude Alma Tignor to Mr. Hugh Proctor Gresham was celebrated on Wednesday afternoon in the parlor of the Rev. J. J. Mur, a Baptist minister of Washington, who performed the ceremony.

The couple were accompanied by Washington by Mrs. C. U. Tignor, the bride's mother; Miss Ruby Gresham and Mr. Edgar Pool.

Miss Gresham was homely attired in a brown tulle dress, a brown hat and brown gloves.

In Honor of Miss Royall. The Cincinnati Enquirer of recent date, in regard to a dinner given by Mrs. Edward Colston, a daughter of former Governor Stevenson, of Kentucky, in honor of Miss Page Royall, of this city, says:

"Mrs. Edward Colston gave a beautifully appointed luncheon at the Country Club on Grandin Road. Roses and sweet peas and ferns formed the decorations."

Colston's guests were Miss Page Royall, of Richmond, Va.; Mr. George W. Warrington, nee Holmes; Miss Holmes, Miss Groesbeck, Miss Colston, Miss Haytie Wiborg, Miss Sara Wiborg, Miss Maud Sattler, Miss Harriet Anderson and Miss Monica Mitchell.

Mrs. Gresham of Cincinnati has also entertained in honor of Miss Royall. At the close of her visit to Cincinnati Miss Royall will go to the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs with Mrs. Hulbert and a party of friends to remain two weeks.

Miss Montague Honored. Miss Emily Montague, of New York, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Montague, formerly of Richmond, who is now visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Tyler, at No. 516 West Franklin Street, was the guest of honor at a luncheon given on Saturday by Miss Genevieve Lathrop.

The luncheon was followed by a visit to the Academy of Music to see the Giffen Company in "The Right to Live."

Birthday Party. Master Carl Dunford celebrated his seventh birthday on Friday evening by giving a party to his friends at the home of his parents, No. 713 North Twenty-seventh Street.

The program included several recitations by Misses Moll Gary, Mary Gary and Sallie Smith, and songs by Misses Ruby Pryde and Helen Toy. Finally, the whole party joined in the singing of "School Days." Refreshments were served. The following were present: Edna Lindsay, Minnie Lindsay, Ernest Lindsay, Stevie Lindler, Ruby Pryde, Wynne Cousins, Myrtle Cousins, Earl Vicker, Clara Wheeler, Christie Smith, Sallie Sallie Nattie Smith, Carl Dunford, Phil Dunford, Welford Dunford, Jr., Helen Toy, Dor-

ANNUAL MOUNTAIN EXCURSION TO ASHBYVILLE, "LAND OF THE SKY." $10.00 round trip, limited ten days, on sale August 14th.

Although the real opening of the presidential campaign is still some distance off, the candidates of the two big parties and the various political campaign managers have a fairly active week in prospect. While ostensibly resting in anticipation of the stirring times which are to come, all are combining considerable work with their pleasures. William J. Bryan, the Democratic presidential nominee, on Saturday will meet the subcommittee of the national committee in Chicago, at which time the national chairman, presidential nominee of the Republican party, at Hot Springs, Va., will furnish his speech of acceptance to the notification committee and have it in readiness for the Cincinnati event the following week.

Frank H. Hitchcock, chairman of the Republican National Committee, on Tuesday will be in Colorado Springs, Col., where he will meet Republican State leaders and members of the national committee west of the Mississippi.

Plans will be formulated at this meeting for carrying on the campaign in the West. Timothy L. Woodruff, chairman of the Republican State Committee for New York, will meet State leaders at Camp Kill Kare, in the Adirondacks, where possible candidates for the governorship will be discussed. The executive staff of Governor Charles E. Hughes will be moved to Saratoga Inn, which will be the summer capitol of New York State.

William R. Hearst will arrive from Europe on Saturday, and will leave at once for Chicago, where the following week the independence party meets in convention.

President Roosevelt's long, quiet summer vacation at Sagamore Hill will be broken into this week, when the chief Executive goes to Newport, R. I., to address the members of the Naval War College, who have been in session there for some time, discussing plans for the construction of new battleships. The President has prepared a paper on the subject, which he will read before the NAVAL experts. He will make the trip from Oyster Bay to Newport on the government yacht Mayflower, leaving Oyster Bay Tuesday night and returning there Thursday morning. He will spend Wednesday in Newport.

At Quebec, beginning Monday and lasting six days, the greatest celebration in the history of Canada will take place, marking the 300th anniversary of the founding of the settlement by Champlain. The Prince of Wales, who is now on his way across the ocean, will take part in the celebration. His official landing, which is scheduled for Wednesday, will be a brilliant spectacle. Vice-President Charles W. Fairbanks will be present as the representative of the United States government.
